

LEMELSON-MIT InvenTeams™

2017 InvenTeams Community Engagement Update March 2017

Highlights:

- The Catalyst InvenTeam's educator, Joann Blumenfeld, was featured in the latest NSTA Report, page 6: "Inventing Engages Students with Special Needs in STEM."
- Representative Tony Cardenas officially recognized the efforts of the DIY Girls InvenTeam on the House Floor.
- La Opinión, the San Fernando Valley Sun, and GineersNow all wrote articles following the CBS Los Angeles feature on the DIY Girls InvenTeam with information on their project and a link to their fundraising page.
- Radio station, Power 96.1, shared the Drew Charter School InvenTeam's fundraising page and encouraged listeners to donate.
- Poolesville High School InvenTeam was at the VentureWell Conference and presented during Open. They also wrote a blog post about their experience.
- Greenbrier East High School InvenTeam received a donation of $500 from the ABB Corporation, WVVA reported.
- TCPalm wrote a brief article on the fundraising efforts done by the school for The Pine School InvenTeam. Congressman Brian Mast was in attendance.
- Congressman Bruce Westerman shared a photo on his Facebook of the Spring Hill High School InvenTeam, recognizing them for receiving the InvenTeam grant.
- Tustin High School shared a few photos of the Tustin InvenTeam presenting their project to the City of Tustin and receiving certificates of recognition.
- The STEM School InvenTeam presented their project to the Chattanooga Engineers Club in order to receive feedback before EurekaFest.

